The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive collective bargaining representative for all employees engaged in the following operations: operating or assisting in operating all heating, ventilating, and air-conditioning equipment (HVAC), engines, turbines, motors, combustion engines, pumps, air compressors, ice and refrigerating machines, fans, siphons, also automatic and power-oiling pumps and engines, operating or assisting in operating, maintaining all facilities, including all instrumentation and appurtenances utilizing energy from nuclear fission or fusion and its products, such as radioactive isotopes. The Union has represented to the Employer that its jurisdiction is as stated in Schedule A.

SECTION 3. RESPONSIBILITY FOR WORK

- A. The bargaining unit employees consisting of Engineer, and where applicable, Assistant Chief Engineer and Chief Engineer, shall be responsible for and shall operate and maintain in good running order all machinery and equipment for which they are responsible. They shall perform all work that has traditionally and historically been within the work jurisdiction of the engineers, except that they shall not be required to perform major repairs not reasonably expected of an Engineer or monitor equipment while away from the job site without compensation for time spent in such activity.
- B. All work of the bargaining unit shall be performed by unit employees, and the Employer shall not sublet or contract out bargaining unit work (except major repairs not reasonably expected of an engineer) without the agreement of the Union. In this event, the Employer, the proposed subcontractor, and the Union shall execute a Memorandum of Agreement in the form prescribed by the Union. Should the Subcontract Agreement be terminated within a period of one (1) year, the employees of the Building still employed by the Subcontractor at the Building shall be entitled to employment at the Building with no loss of seniority or benefits, provided there are positions available. If the provisions of this paragraph are violated by the Employer, the no-strike clause and grievance and arbitration procedure shall become inoperative and the Union shall be free to take any lawful action against the Employer.

- C. Employees shall obey all orders of those in authority. The Employee shall not be unfairly disciplined as a result of having received conflicting orders from persons having apparent authority.

SECTION 4. NON-DISCRIMINATION

- A. Neither Employers nor the Union will discriminate against applicants or employees with regard to employment, tenure or any other term or condition of employment on the basis of race, sex, color, age, religious creed or national origin or ancestry in violation of any law.
- B. Whenever in this Agreement the masculine gender is used, it shall be deemed to include the feminine gender.

SECTION 5. EMPLOYMENT TERMINATION-DISCIPLINE-SEVERANCE PAY

- A. The right to employ, discipline, discharge and lay off for cause shall be vested solely in the Employer, but the Union shall have the right in case of discharge, discipline, or layoff to investigate the reasons therefore and to protest such discharge, discipline, or layoff through the grievance procedure. The Employer shall provide the Union with a copy of any written work rules or amendments thereof applicable to bargaining unit employees which are promulgated during the term of this Agreement.
- B. Except for discharge for intoxication, insubordination, habitual absence, gross negligence, or the unlawful use or possession of drugs or controlled substances, the Employer shall give to the employee written notice ten (10) days prior to the effective date of the discharge, or ten (10) days pay, in addition to all other benefits which the employee had accrued, to date of discharge. The day on which the notice is given shall be excluded from the ten (10) day period. The employee may resign by giving to the Employer the same notice.
- C. Any employee in the service of a Building continuously for one (1) year or more whose employment with the Building is permanently terminated because of technological improvements or the closing of a building, shall be eligible to receive a severance allowance equal to one percent (1%) of his straight time earnings during the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding notice of separation multiplied by the number of employee's full years of continuous service with the Building as of the date of separation. Upon acceptance of severance pay, the employee shall be deemed to have waived all future rights of employment with the Building.
- D. The names and addresses of all employees newly hired or discharged shall be sent to the Union by the Chief Engineer within 72 hours after their hiring or discharge. SECTION 11. JURY DUTY

The Employer shall compensate the employee for the difference between the pay which such employee would normally receive, excluding overtime, and the amount received for jury service.

SECTION 12. VACATION AND TERMINATION PAY

Any employee who has been in the service of the Building continuously for one (1) year shall be given an annual vacation of one (1) week with pay; any employee who has been in the service of the Building continuously for two (2) years shall be entitled to an annual vacation of two (2) weeks with pay; any employee who has been in the service of the Building continuously for five (5) years shall be entitled to an annual vacation of three (3) weeks with pay. Any employee who has been in the service of the Building continuously for seventeen (17) years shall be entitled to an annual vacation of four (4) weeks with pay; any employee who has been in the service of the Building continuously for twenty-five (25) years shall be entitled to an annual vacation of five (5) weeks with pay.

An employee continues to accrue and earn Vacation during any paid absences (e.g. vacation time or holidays) as well as during any paid leaves of absence, including when receiving Short Term Disability. Employees do not accrue Vacation during unpaid absences unless otherwise required by law.

Vacation days must be used in one year after vacation is accrued continuously in the building for the year. No vacation will be rolled over for the next year except the employee can roll over up to ten days in the first year of the contract.

Any employee who has been in the service of the Building continuously for one (1) year or more whose employment is thereafter terminated for any reason, shall be paid for accrued vacation computed from the anniversary date of employment (unless the employee has already taken a vacation) and a portion of the next year's vacation which the employee has earned up to the date employment terminates. This compensation shall be paid at the time the employee receives final pay from the Employer. If a building changes ownership but the managing agent remains the same, the employees shall not be deemed terminated within the meaning of this section.

An additional day's vacation shall be allowed an employee if such employee's vacation period includes one of the holidays mentioned in Section 13 hereof. Vacation accruals shall not be affected by a change of ownership of a building so long as the employee continues to be employed in the building. A week's vacation pay shall be forty (40) hours pay at the employee's regular straight time hourly rate. Regularly employed Relief Engineers shall receive a pro-rata vacation based upon their respective terms of employment in the building. Regularly scheduled year-round part-time employees accrue vacation and personal/sick time based on their previous year's hours on a pro rata basis. Vacation relief engineers and temporary engineers do not accrue vacation or personal/sick time. Vacations shall be scheduled to follow the days off in the employee's normal work schedule.

- B. The Chief Engineer shall receive a differential over the wages of the Engineers under his supervision. If in the opinion of the Union an inequity in wages exists, the Union Representatives shall have the right to notify the Employer and request negotiations to adjust the differential in wages. A meeting shall be arranged for this purpose within seven (7) days after receipt of request.

SECTION 15. PERSONAL/SICK TIME

All employees shall receive 40 hours of personal/sick time per year on the 1st calendar day after commencement of employment. Effective July 1, 2021 all employees shall receive 56 hours of personal/sick time per year on the 1st calendar day after commencement of employment.. All hours beyond 32 hours of personal/sick time of each year's allotment must be used exclusively for the purposes of sick leave. Personal/sick time must be used in increments of 4 hours. Seven days advance notice must be provided if it is reasonably foreseeable that an employee will be taking personal/sick time (e.g., vacation, prescheduled appointment, etc.). In the event that the Employer cannot accommodate multiple requests for the same date, preference shall be given to the most senior employee. If it is not reasonably foreseeable (e.g. illness) that an employee will be taking personal/sick time, an employee must provide notice at the start of the workday or as soon as it is practicable. Employees may carry over 20 hours of personal/sick time per year for a maximum cap of 60 hours. Employees shall be paid for accrued and unused personal/sick time upon severance of employment. Use of personal/sick time shall be in accordance with the Chicago and Cook County ordinances.

The Employer is not required to make contributions on behalf of employees hired as seasonal student help.

Effective July 1, 2021, and July 1, 2022, the amount to be contributed by the Employer may be increased as directed by the Union pursuant to Section 6.

Paid holidays (including personal/sick time), vacations, jury service and funeral leave shall constitute time worked for the purpose of this section. An individual who is actively employed by an Employer and on whose behalf the Employer submits contributions to this Fund shall be eligible for benefits on the first day of the month following the date of hire. Temporary, seasonal, casual, special project and/or contingent employees, including vacation relief, are not eligible, except as defined below. The Union and Employer intend that the terms of this section conform to the Affordable Care Act, (“ACA”).

The Employer will notify the Union when the Employer stops making the payment for the absent employee at the conclusion of one hundred and twenty days.

C. Where a temporary replacement is hired for vacation relief, seasonal, casual, special project or contingent employees, including coverage defined in (b) above, for a defined period of time not to exceed ninety (90) days, the Employer shall not be required to make contributions.

D. Where a temporary employee’s assignment exceeds ninety (90) days, the employer will be required to make contributions on behalf of the employee(s) on the first of the month preceding the ninetieth day of employment, at which time the employee(s) shall be a regular active employee. The seniority date shall be the initial date of hire.

E. The obligation to make the above payments shall continue during periods when a new collective bargaining agreement is being negotiated.

HEALTH AND WELFARE AND PENSION CONTRIBUTIONS

In the event the Employer is delinquent in making Pension or Health and Welfare contributions, and such delinquency continues for thirty (30) days after written notice to said employer, such delinquent employer shall no longer be protected by the no strike clause and the grievance and arbitration process and the Union shall be free to take any lawful action against the Employer.

SECTION 18. NO-STRIKE CLAUSE

During the term of this Agreement, there shall be no strikes, lockouts, or picketing. Refusal of any employee to cross a primary picket line shall not be grounds for discharge or disciplinary action.

If any employee or the Union has a grievance, it shall be presented to the immediate supervisor outside of the bargaining unit within five (5) working days after the event which gave rise to such grievance. Any grievance not presented to the Supervisor within five (5) working days shall be deemed waived. If the grievance is not resolved in the meeting of the aggrieved employee and the immediate supervisor, within two (2) working days, the aggrieved employee shall reduce the grievance to writing and sign it. The written grievance shall be presented to the Union Representative and the Building Manager who shall meet within a reasonable period of time in a further attempt to adjust the grievance. Any grievance not disposed of according to the provisions of the preceding paragraph and all grievances involving the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall be processed as follows:

- A. Within fifteen (15) days from the date the grievance arose (exclusive of Sundays and Holidays) the Union may present the grievance to the Employer who shall then meet with reasonable promptness and endeavor to reach a final and binding solution.
- B. If they fail to resolve the matter within fifteen (15) days, the Union or the Employer may request that the grievance be referred to an impartial arbitrator whose decision (award) shall be final and binding upon the Employer (building), the employees, and the Union. In the event that the parties are unable to agree on an arbitrator, the Employer and the Union shall join in a request to the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services for a list of seven (7) qualified arbitrators who are members of the National Academy of Arbitrators (NAA) and are available to serve in Chicago. The parties shall then attempt to agree upon an arbitrator, and if they fail to agree, six (6) names from the list of seven (7) arbitrators, who are members of the NAA, shall be eliminated by the Union and Employer alternately striking one (1) name at a time. The remaining name shall be the arbitrator chosen, and his authority shall be limited to making a decision on the grievance in question in conformity with the terms of this Agreement. It is agreed that an arbitrator shall have no right to add to, take from, or modify any of the provisions of this Agreement. The cost of the arbitrator's services and a stenographic transcript shall be shared equally by the Employer and the Union. Any other expenses, such as wages, fees, living or traveling expenses of representatives or witnesses must be paid by the party incurring such expenses.
- C. Pending exhaustion of the grievance procedure, including arbitration when necessary, the employees (except any discharged without notices under Section 5, Paragraph (B) of this Agreement), shall continue to work, and the Employer shall continue in effect the working conditions which existed prior to the time the grievance arose.
- D. All time limitations stated in this Section may be extended by agreement of the Union and the Employer.
- E. The failure or refusal of the Employer (building) to meet with Union Representatives to adjust a grievance as required by this section or a failure or refusal to accept as binding, an arbitration decision (award) hereunder, will free the Union and employees from the obligation of the no-strike clause as to the Employer, and the Union shall also be free to strike and take any other lawful action against such building.
