

What can I be reimbursed for?

Parents and adult students who are their own guardian can be reimbursed for money spent that served a specific educational purpose.

Below are just some examples of expenses that you can be reimbursed for. If you have questions about what can be reimbursed or about your other options, ask your Parent Outreach Coordinator or the members of your SSCA Team.

Academic Support and Tutoring

- Tutoring
- Test prep classes
- Books and Magazines
- Math/Science Camps
- Tuition for classes outside of school like multisensory reading and math programs or remedial programs

Arts and Cultural Activities

- Art and music classes
- Museum visits or memberships
- Theater camps

Physical Activity and Fitness Programming

- Sports camps and classes
- Dance classes
- Exercise classes
- Park District Programs

Social Emotional Learning

- Therapy services
- Executive functioning support

Transition Services

- College course or tuition
- Career training
- Job coaching

Educational Technology

- Computers (if used toward the student's education)
- Online learning programs
- Educational Subscriptions